

You're a Founding Instructor. Let's get you booked.

Our mission is simple: get more people dancing — more rooms full of people moving to music, trying something new, and having fun together, and more great instructors making real money doing it. As one of our first 100 instructors, you're not just a member; you're helping get this off the ground. Our first goal for you is the same as yours: land your first booking, so your membership pays for itself and we grow from there together.

Your founding benefits

- Founding Instructor badge on your public profile.
- Ranking boost — founding profiles are pushed to the top of city and event searches.
- No-risk guarantee — if you don't get a booking in your first 12 months, your $99 is refunded in full.

Pricing your gigs

Charge what your time is worth. We recommend $200–$215 per hour with a two-hour minimum. A typical event is really a two-hour commitment anyway — travel there, an hour of teaching, travel back — so a $400+ minimum is fair to you and normal for buyers. One booking covers your $99 membership roughly four times over; if it helps, simply fold the $99 into your first gig's fee.

Before your first gig — quick checklist

- Music ready: a set list of easy and intermediate dances most groups can pick up fast, with a couple of crowd-pleasers in reserve.
- Portable speaker (charged, plus cable/adaptor) — don't count on the venue's sound system.
- Plan your breaks: short music and water breaks keep energy up, especially for beginner groups.
- Confirm details ahead: arrival time, space, surface, guest count, and any song requests.
- Arrive 15–30 minutes early to set up and test sound.

What we're doing on our end

We're actively marketing on your behalf — search ads, a growing library of city and event pages, and direct outreach to wedding planners, corporate event planners, and entertainment companies in your area. To make the most of it: keep your profile, rates, and service area current, and reply to inquiries within 48 hours. Fast replies win bookings.

Questions any time: reply to your welcome email and a real person (us) will get back to you. Thanks for being a founding member — now let's get a room dancing.
